The speech bubble contains the following items:

- A fly with the text  $b = j$  below it.
- A pen with the text  $-p$  below it.
- A chicken with the text  $-p$  and a curved arrow below it.
- Two foxes with the text  $v = l$  to their right.
- A deer with the text  $-r$  to its right.
- A hammer with the text  $h = s$  and  $r = n$  to its right.
- A man with glasses and a bowtie with the text  $-a$  and a comma below it.
- A spiderweb with the text  $-b$  to its right.
- Two dogs with the text  $n = u$  to their right.
- A fishing net with the text  $n = h$  to its right.
- A train with the text  $tr = kl$  above it.

At the bottom of the speech bubble, the word Oplossing: is written in a cursive font. Below it are two horizontal dotted lines for writing the answer, with a comma at the start of the second line.
